REFORMATION OF TAX LAWS OF STATE

Auditor Moore's Tentative Plan For Segregation. of Taxation.

TAX-PAYERS' BENEFIT.

Speaks of "Gross Inequalities of Assessment"—Plan May be Used by Legislature.

Richmond, Va., uly 16.—State Auditor C. Lee Moore, has made public a tentative plan for the segregation of taxation which he has drafted and which probably will be used as a working basis for the Virginia Legislature of 1914 to begin reformation of the tax laws of the state.

Mr. Moore's plan, which is comprehensive and readily understood, is printed in pamphlet form and will be distributed generally before the next legislature meets so that the people may become familiar with it.

Briefly sumarized the benefits to tax-payers under Mr. Moores segregation plan are as follows:

"No state income tax, probably no county, city or town income tax.

"No state tax on bonds, notes, etc., and only a maximum rate of 7½c on $100 fair market value by the county, city or town.

"No State, county, city or town tax on depositors in a state or national bank, etc., or on depositors with private bankers.

"Net amount of capital of merchants, manufacturers, etc., taxed by county, city or town at maximum rate of 75 cents on $100 fair market value, and state license tax on merchants based on purchases, (as now) and State license tax on manufacturers, etc., to be based on sales to be fixed on an equitable basis.

"Fiduciary funds, etc., not taxed by state and only taxed by counties, cities and towns at maximum rate of 75 cents on $100 fair market value.

"Stock of and deposits in bank, etc., (state and national) and capital, etc., of, and deposits with, private bankers taxed to the banks and bankers only by state. Their real estate tax only by county, city or town.

"All other taxable stocks taxed only by county, city or town at maximum rate of 75 cents on $100 fair market value.

The State not to tax real estate and tangible personal property, the same to be taxed solely by the counties, cities or towns; and if the true value of the real estate is assessed the result will be that in counties and cities where the tax rate (state, county, city, town, etc.,) is now $1.50 and the value is 40 to 50 per cent. of the true value the conditions will be reversed, making the tax rate 75 cents on the $100 valuation instead of $1.50; and the assessed value of the real estate its true value instead of 40 or 50 per cent. of its value, thus accomplishing the much-to-be desired result of having all property, real and personal, bearing the same rate of taxation, viz: 75 cents on each $100 fair market value. To do this will not increase the taxes now paid on real estate, but the same amount of taxes will be produced by the change in valuation and the reduced rate. A farm or city lot now valued at $1,000 assessed with taxes at the rate of $1.50 per $100 valuation, pays $15.00 taxes, and the same farm or city lot valued at its true value of $2,000 assessed with taxes at the rate of 75 cents per $100 valuation, will pay $15 taxes, the same amount which will be paid on $2,000 of tangible or intangible property.

"Under the tentative plan proposed the state will continue the same support now provided for the public free schools, for public roads, for the payment of pensions, will pay the criminal charges, will pay the interest on the public debt and will pay into the sinking fund the sum required by law to carry out the terms of the debt settlement.

"Should it be decided to prohibit the manufacture, sale, etc., of ardent spirits, malt liquors, etc., the loss of revenue to the state can be made by requiring the counties and cities to levy, for the benefit of the state, a tax to exceed three-fourths of one mill upon each $100 of the assessed value of real estate and personal property."

M'VEAGH COMES TO BRYAN'S RELIEF

Says Amount Paid Secretary of State is Insufficient.

SHOULD GET $24,000

Secretary of Treasury First Member of President's Official Family to Discuss Salary.

Washington, July 16.—The strongest utterances yet made on behalf of Secretary of State Bryan, who contends that he cannot live respectively on the government's $12,000-a-year salary, has come from former Secretary of the Treasury Franklin McVeagh, who declared that Mr. Bryan is correct when he says that a cabinet officer cannot live on that salary and maintain the social and official obligations demanded of him.

Mr. McVeagh, who served in Mr. Taft's cabinet, has had no little experience with the duties of a cabinet officer.

"Of course, Mr. Bryan is right." said instantly. "Such a salary is merely nominal. Scarcely more than a drop in the bucket. The cabinet officer has an official life to lead as well as private. I don't doubt that any of them could run on $12,000, but they would have to live privately. They couldn't possibly mingle with those in the official life."

"The Secretary of State, from the nature of his position, must be looked upon for more lavish expenditures in a social way than any of the other members of the cabinet," said Mr. McVeagh.

'Would double the present salary be sufficient?'

"I think it would if the cabinet members were careful and economical."

END OF AUTO WAR.

Commissioners of District of Columbia Rescind Order.

In an effort to end the long automobile license war waged between the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia, the commissioners of the District of Columbia yesterday, following a conference with a number of prominent Washington motorists, decided to rescind the order adopted by them last January compelling automobile owners from states who use the District roads, to pay the same amounts for licenses that are assessed against motorists of the National Capitol, who entered those commonwealths. Formal orders to this effect will be issued today

The commissioners are now considering plans for repaying the money which was collected under the high tax order.

One of the reasons for the rescinding of the order is the fact that the registration by horsepower of all cars which are operated in the Distrct whether their owners be residents of Washington or not. This proposed law also gives the commissioners authority to determine the tax to be levied against the machines as they are registered .This bill may be recalled if officials of Virginia and Maryland dagree to a reciprocal arrangement whereby District automobile owners may obtain perpetual licenses in these states for $2.

PROGRESS OF CURRENCY BILL

Congressman Glass Hopes For Expedition in Preparing Measure.

AGREEMENT ON SEC. 20

Chairman of Banking Committee of House of Representatives Experiences Much Relief.

Washington, July 16.—Following an agreement on section 20, the so-called bond refunding section of the currency bill, Chairman Glass of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, expressed the hope today "that progress on the remaining sections will be more rapid than heretofore."

The committee has voted to rewrite section 20 so that it will provide, in brief:

That coveing a perood of twenty years there shall be a permissable retirement of the 2 per cent bonds, and their exchange for 3 percents. The latter will have no circulation privilege.

A concession is made to the holders of the 2 percents and they will not be deprived arbitrarily of their circulative privilege. Banks may continue note issues against them so long as the bonds can be obtained for the purpose. Section 18, prohibiting further circulation on the bonds, will be eliminated.

That at the expiration of 20 years every holder of 2 per cent bonds is to be paid at par with accrued interest. This is an entirely new scheme for the protection of the bondholders.

The newly organized banks shall not be required to purchase a given amount of bonds in order to begin business, as at present required.

The agreement of section 20 came after two days of what Mr. Glass calls "earnest discussion" but which sounded like wrangling upon several occasions. Mr. Glass issued a statement concerning the agreemnt among the Democrats of the committee.

WARRANT BY TELEGRAPH.

Idaho Authorities Take Quick Action in Case of Matthews.

Norfolk, Va., July 16.—Chief of Police Kizer received yesterday morning a telegraphic warrant from Sheriff J. M. Roberts, of Boise, Idaho, charging W. A. Matthews, who was arrested for the Denver authorities on Saturday night by Detectives Pitts and Spratt, with the embezzlement of $7,900.

The telegram, which was the first of its kind that Major Kizer ever received, was not a request that Matthews be held for the Boise police, but a warrant charging the man with embezzlement, and attached to it an order that he be delivered to the Boise authorities.

Embodied in the telegram was the order that the warrant be served by telgeraph, according to an act of the Idaho legislature. The warrant did not specify from whom the money is alleged to have been embezzled, but simply said that the embezzlement had been committed in May in Boise.

Falling from a second-story window at her home, near Harrisonburg Va., whie walking in her sleep, Mrs. Diana Fogle, 91 years old, died three hours later.

HOT BATTLE WITH NEGRO CONVICTS

Overpower Guard and Attempt to Escape on Hand-Car.

ONE NEGRO IS KILLED.

Four Recaptured and Returned to Road Force—Injured Men in Serious Condition.

Richmond, July 16.—Four negro convicts attacked a guard at the State Prison Farm in Goochland county on Monday, took his gun and pistol away from him, and made their escape. They were tracked by bloodhounds and recaptured, after a fierce pistol battle, in which one of the convicts was fatally wounded and two others seriously hurt.

It seems that on Monday morning about 9:30 o'clock a force of negro prisoners under guard was packing hay into one of the big barns on a hill not far from the railroad station A mechanical device for hoistering the hay into the loft became clogged, and one of the negroes asked the guard to lend him his knife in order that he might cut it loose.

The request seemed a natural one, and the guard reached into his pocket to comply. To do so he lowered his gun. Apparently this was a prearranged signal, for as he did so three convicts jumped on him from behind, knocked him down, and took away his weapons—a ten-shot magazine rifle and his pistol, in which there were five cartridges.

Having disarmed the guard, the four negroes broke away, down the hill toward the railroad track, seizen a handcar, and escaped westward.

Superintendent Davis sent out an immediate alarm, and gave orders to assemble men on horesback for pursuit. By the time horses had been saddled and the bloodhounds made ready a message came by telegraph from Maidens, next station to the wst, that the man had abandoned the handcar and escaped into the woods. The dogs were taken to Maidens and put on the trail, which was readily followed.

After some distance the dogs became greatly excited and showed evident signs that their quarry was near All four negroes were found hidden in a clump of bushes.

As the guards approached one of them called out:

"Look out, we are armed and won't be captured."

A sharp battle followed. None of the guards was injured, but when the fight was over one negro convict was found seriously wounded in the shoulder and arm, one shot in the neck, another in the hips. A fourth, who had laid down in a ditch, was uninjured and surrendered. The gun and pistol showed that the convicts had fired fourteen shots at their captors, the pistol having failed to go off once.

All four convicts were carried back to the State Farm, a distance of about five miles, and at the prison hospital the negro shot in the shoulder was found to be in a desperate condition. His arm was amputated in an effort to save his life, but he died shortly after the operation. The other injured men are in serious condition.

TROUBLE IN LABOR CIRCLES.

Union Men of Richmond Resent Po- litical Activity of Federations' Executive Committee.

Richmond, July 16.—President John Hirschberg, of the Central Trades and Labor Council, has called a spec- ial meeting of that organization for next Sunday afternoon to consider the endorsement last week of J. Thompson Brown, for Commissioner of Agriculture by the executive com- mittee of the State Federation of Labor.

It has been the policy of the fede- ration to refrain from politcal activ- ity except when matters involving a bor issues were involved and a storm of criticism has been raised by the acton of the executiive committee in undertaking to champion the cause of a political candidate when no labor issues involved.

So intense has feeling become that there is current talk of impeach- ment. The Trades and Labor Council cannot initiate impeachment proceed- ings. President Hirschberg said, but it is empowered to recommend them if the occasion warrants.

The meeting of the union organiz- tion will take place Sunday in Labor Temple. The president of the State Federation and the members of the executive committee have been noti- fied to attend the meeting and to be prepared to show why they should not be asked to resign office.

That they should have deliberately entered into a political campaign when the avowed policy of the fede- ration is non-political is looked upon by other labor leaders as inexcusable The action of the committee is calcu- lated, they say, to seriously injure the federation, and to lessen its effi- ciency.

The executive committee whose ac- tion has brought about the situation in the council is composed of Howard T. Colvin, Alexandria; J. B. Cline- dist, Newport News; A. C. Koontz, Newport News; S. C. Priddy, Roan- oke, and J. E. Reynolds, Richmond.

NOTICE.

Alexandria, Va., July 1, 1913.

Owing to the death of John A. Marshall, the affairs of the firm of John A. Marshall & Bro., are being liquidated. It is imperative that all outstanding accounts due the firm are settled at once and the prompt assistance of our friends in this con- nection will be gratefully appreci- ated.

The business will be continued by Charles B. Marshall, surviving part- ner of John A. Marshall & Bro., and the same policies which have made this firm one of the largest shoe stores in Northern Virginia will be continued.

The entire stock of shoes will be sold regardless of cost for cash. This is an opportunity of a life time to get good shoes cheap.

BRISTOL OFFICE CLOSED.

Delegation Hurries To Washington To Enter Protest.

Bristol, Va., July 16—Official ad- vice has been received from Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Blake- ley of the discontinuance of the post- office recently established in Bristol Va., just across the State line from (Tenn.), postoffice. The new office goes out July 31.

This office was established to meet a patronage emergency having been insisted upon by Congressman C. B. Slemp, who complained that Virgin- ians had been given little recogni- tion in the Tennessee office, al- though it served the people of both municipalities. The new office, al- though designated as of the fourth class, wes established at a cost to Postmaster Charles F. Gauthierer, a former New Yorker, of several thousand dollars and its receipts for the first six months were at the rate of approximately $25,000 a year. The Virginians are hurrying a dele- gation to Washington to enter pro- tests.

WAR ON SLIT SKIRTS.

Young Richmond Woman Charged With Indecent Exposure.

Richmond, Va., July 16.—On a war- rant charging indecent exposure, Ma- yor Ainslie and Police Chief Werner yesterday made the first arrest here for the wearing of slit skirts.

Blossom Browning is the name the young prisoner gave at the station house. Women friends bailed her for app arance in police court today.

The girl contends that her dress was the fashion, was bought in a li- censed deaprtment store and suited her tastes, and she has retained coun- sel to defend her.

GO OVER ROUTE IN FALL.

Complete Preliminary Work on the Bristol-to-Washington Highway.

Bristol, Va., July 16.—William H. Ashton, president of the Bristol-to- Washington Highway Association, who spent Saturday here, announced it as his purpose to send a party over the proposed route for a stone high- way between Bristol and Washington early in September. The cars will start from Bristol. This will be done in order to arouse interest in the vari- ous counties as a means of compe- ting the survey. Money has been pro- vided for a survey in all counties be- tween Bristol and Roanoke, Va., but plans have not been perfected in coun- ties east of Roanoke. The building of this proposed road, to connect here with the Memphis-to-Bristol road, means eventually a thorough high- way between Washington and Mem- phis, via Bristol, Knoxville, Nash- ville and Jackson.

A divorce decree was granted by Justice Evans in London yesterday to Mrs. George Cornwallis-West, who was formerly Lady Randolph Church- ill. The testimony was devoid of anything approaching the sensational. The divorce was granted on the ground of misconduct by Cornwallis- West and on the charge that Cornwal- lis-West stayed at the Great Western Hotel, Paddington, London, with a woman who was not his wife.

NOTICE.

Commencing today I will be in my office in the Fairfax street front of the Market Building during the next thirty days for the purpose of testing weights and measures used in the city.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is de- sired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in opera tion—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses —and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, in- cluding that of economy.

JUDGE WILLIAMS THE LOGICAL CANDIDATE.

With barely three weeks elapsing before the Democratic primary on August 5th, in which the candidates for Lieutenant-Governor, Attorney-General and Commissioner of Agriculture, will be selected, the interest shown by the voters, at large, is small, and indications are that a very light vote will be cast. Dismissing the race for Lieutenant-Governor from our mind as one in which it is apparent that there is no real contest, the real interest in the campaign seems to be confined to the campaign for attorney general, where two candidates, John Garland Pollard, of Richmond, and S. Gordon Cumming, of Hampton, are contesting for the office at present held by Judge Samuel W. Williams, the present incumbent. While both of the men seeking Judge Williams position have ability and character, we have seen no good reasons advanced why they are in any way better or even as well qualified to become the attorney general of Virginia than the man who has so courageously, conscientiously and ably filled the position for the past four years.

It seem to us that after a man has been elected to an office which requires considerable time with which to familiarize himself with its duties, that certainly as long as he fills the position satisfactorily he should be permitted to succeed himself for at least one term, unless there are much better reasons than are advanced, in the present instance, for a change.

This point is made more convincing after reading the opening speech of Mr. Pollard, one of the candidates, at Louisa Court House, yesterday. Mr. Pollard recites the great cost to the candidates in state primaries and the disadvantages to which a man of small fortune is put under. This is undoubtedly true and must be felt by Judge Williams, who four years ago had to spend a large portion of his four years' salary in order to pay his campaign expenses and again this year is compelled to enter another expensive race.

Judge Williams was elected to the position which he fills after a spirited contest and has since made a most excellent official. Bringing to bear a splendidly trained mind, a quick and appreciative intellect, sterling integrity and a strong constitution which has enabled him to meet the arduous requirements of his office, he has made few mistakes, and the only criticism of his four years' administration comes from those whom he has forced to carry out the law of the state and meet the requirements of the statutes. He is a man of lovable character and numbers his friends throughout the state by the thousands. He is one of the few old Confederates who still hold positions in the state government.

We have read with care Mr. Pollard's Louisa speech and can find but little to interest us with the exception of his attack on the primary system, which seems to be the song of discontent of most of the anti-organization politicians in these days.

Some of the statements are misleading, if not untrue, as for instance his statement that "thousands of venal voters, black and white, have their poll taxes paid for them by men who vote them like sheep," and again "in some parts of the state so many ignorant and corrupt negroes have been placed upon the registration books that they threaten again to bring back a condition which is responsible for the present blunted political consciences of so many of our otherwise good people."

Such statements as these, even when made by a man of Mr. Pollard's standing, will fall unless corroberated by something more convincing than his bare statement. It should be remembered that negroes are not permitted to vote in Democratic primaries.

From all indications Mr. Pollard is not meeting with much progress in his attempt to wrest the laurels from Judge Williams. Recently there was a great rally held for him in Richmond, his home town. Acording to the Times Dispatch, there were 255 persons present from a city having a population of 127,000 and some 10,000 registered voters. No doubt these 255 voters out of a total of 10,000 are about the best encouragement. Mr. Pollard has gotten in his present unfortunate campaign.

We have but little fear of the result of the contest. Here in Alexandria in the very opposite part of the state from his home, Judge Williams has hundreds of friends whom he has met on his several visits to this city who will take pleasure in again supporting him for a position on for which he is so admirable fitted.

Rochester officials have decided that the women up there may dress exactly as they please—just as if the masculine officials really had anything to do with it.

We won't go so far as to say he brought home the bacon, but the senior Senator from Georgia is doubtless delighted to be the first representative of the upper House elected by the people.

Another policeman is to be elected by the board of police commissioners tonight. Surely there must be some one to object, and say he ought to be elected by the direct vote of the people.

PLANT MINES IN POTOMAC.

Artillery Officers Protecting National Capital From Attack.

Following out a line of submarine mine planting that was first adopted during the Spanish-American war, and later improved upon in Chesapeake Bay, during subsequent naval maneuvers, the United States mine planting steamer, General Frank is at work in the Potomac river, where her officers are planting mines in the immediate vicinity of all forts along its banks. This is being done, not because there are rumors of war with Japan or Mexico or any other nation, but simply to teach the men in the regular artillery the value of mine planting. Nor are the mines filled with deadly powder or dynamite.

They are dummy mines, and are used merely to spot places in the river where real mines would destroy hostile fleets.

The General Frank makes an annual visit to the Potomac to teach the heavy artillery at Fort Washington and other points the proper way of safeguarding the Capital. At present the Seventeenth Company has been designated for instruction. Several hours each day the men may be seen placing dummy mines below the level of the water, and conecting them by battery wires to the stations on shore.

The main plan of the mine planting to protect the nation's capital is somewhat as follows:

An enemy's fleet would have to come through the mouth of Chesapeake Bay into the Potomac to reach Washington. At the mouth of the bay, the two capes—Henry and Charles—are used as outposts and mine-planting stations are already established there. Fort Monroe, a few miles from these capes, might with its huge guns, protect the entrance to Hampton Roads, but no chances are taken. The tug Reno, stationed at Fort Monroe, would take care of the Chesapeake region and plant mines in the channel to Washington. These mines are connected with electric wires with the station at Fort Monroe, and each mine is numbered. Chesapeake Bay is laid out in squares, each numbered, thus telling the exact location of a mine. By glancing at a map before him, the officer in charge of any set of mines can tell instantly where his mines are located, and should a foreign ship advance anywhere near that spot, as would be determined by telescope and mathematical computation, the mine would be exploded.

Each mine in time of war would carry nearly 1,000 pounds of the deadliest explosive—enough to blow up any ship that floats.

Contrary to popular theory this class of mines do not explode when the ship's keel strikes them, but must be set off by the man at the instrument on shore. During the Spanish-American War such mines were planted, ready for use, but the boats for Norfolk still ran over them.

It is doubtful if any ship could ever get past the vigilant eyes at Fort Monroe, but the War Department has taken no chances with its plans. Mines can be planted almost up to River View, or even to the city itself. This is one of the reasons that the General Frank is doing the work annually. The Potomac is maped off much in the same manner as Chesapeake Bay, and should any ship happen to get past the capes, it would be wrecked before it reached Fort Washington. A shot from a battleship in the immediate vicinity of River View would easily drop into the Capital.

The General Frank will remain in the river for more than two weeks. Then she will go to other coast fortifications to drill the men in the same work.

BRYAN'S DEFENSE.

Senator Bristow Introduces Resolution Concerning Salary of Secretary of State.

Secretary of State Bryan defended himself again yesterday against criticism on account of his absences from Washington on the Chautauqua platform.

Senator Bristow, of Kansas, yesterday introduced a resolution calling upon President Wilson to advise the Senate what salary is necessary in order to retain to the government the exclusive services of the Secretary of State and keep him in Washington. The resolution will come up under the rules of the Senate on Friday.

This is the resolution introduced in the Senate by Senator Bristow:

"Whereas, from 1789 to 1799 the salary of the Secretary of State was $3,500 per annum, during which period the office was occupied by Thomas Jefferson and Edmund Randolph; and,

"Whereas, from 1799 to 1819 the salary of the Secretary of State was $5,000 per annum, during which period the office was occupied by such eminent statesmen as John Marshall James Madison, James Monroe, and John Quincy Adams; and,

"Whereas, from 1819 to 1853 the salary of the Secretary of State was $6,000 per annum, during which period the office was occupied by such eminent statesmen as Henry Clay Martin Van Buren, Daniel Webster John C. Calhoun, and James Buchanan; and,

"Whereas, from 1853 to 1913 the salary of the Secretary of State was $8,000 per annum during which period that high office was occupied by such eminent statesman as William H. Seward, James G. Blaine, Thomas F. Bayard, Walter Q. Gresham, Richard Olney, John Sherman, John Hay, and Elihu Root, and,

"Whereas, during this long period of time, no one of these eminent statesmen was compelled to neglect the duties of the office because of the meagerness of the salary; and,

"Whereas the 'great commoner' now holding that high office, Hon. W. J. Bryan, has stated in the public press that the salary of $1,000 per month is not sufficient to enable him to live with comfort, and that because of the meagerness of the salary of $12,000 per annum he is compelled to neglect the duties of his office and go upon the lecture platform in order to earn a living: and,

"Whereas, there are now pending before the Department of State matters of the highest importance to the nation affecting the relations of our country with Mexico, Japan England and other foreign countries that demand the most earnest, careful, and continuous attention of the Secretary of State, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the President be requested, if not incompatable with the public interests, to advise the Senate what would be a proper salary, to enable the present Secretary of State to live with comfort and to enable him to give his time to the discharge of his public duties, for which he is now being paid the sum of $1,000 per month, and be it further,

"Resolved, That the President be respectfully requested to give this subject as prompt attention as his convenience will permit in order that Congress may take immediate steps to relieve the country from the great loss which it suffers by being deprived of the services of the present Secretary of State, though it is now paying for such services at the rate of $1,000 per month."

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in Alexandria and Good Reasons For it.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering.
Days of misery, night of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
When she finds freedom?

Many readers will profit by the following.

Mrs. Nettie G. Davis, 425 S. Lee St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I can give Doan's Kidney Pills my highest endorsement. I was cured by them of constant backache, lameness in my loins and dizzy spells. This remedy has also strengthened my kidneys."

A Second Statement.

Mrs. Davis was interviewed on March 27th, 1912, and she said: "You may continue the use of the testimonial I gave two years ago. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occassionally with the most satisfactory results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

BARGAINS OF A LIFETIME.

Owing to the death of John A. Marshall, the business of the firm will be conducted by me as surviving partner. The affairs will have to be settled, no matter what the sacrifice. Knowing full well that it will take considerable time to close this matter by even getting cost prices of our goods, I have determined, in order to settle quickly, to sacrifice everything. It is impossible to enumerate the immense stock, but a few will suffice to interest those who would like to get something for actually nothing. The sale will begin tomorrow, July 12th, and will continue throughout the week. To interest the people we will mention a few of the many bargains:

Broken lot Men's $4 and $5 low Shoes and oxfords, for $1.50.

Women's oxfords, in broken lots, mostly small sizes and narrow width. Usual price $2.50, $3 and $3.50, now $1.00.

Children's oxfords that sold for $1.00, $1.25, and $1.50, to be sold at 50 cents a pair.

Misses oxfords, which we never sold for less than $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00 will go for 75 cents a pair.

100 pairs of misses and children's white canvas pumps and oxfords, a few slightly soiled, will be sold for 25 cents a pair.

In conclusion, I want to ask my friends to assist me in settling the affairs of the firm promptly, and the best way I can suggest is by closing their accounts. I will gratefully appreciate their co-operation in this matter.

CHAS. B. MARSHALL.

Thousands of dollars' damage was revealed following the fiercest storm of the season that visited Chicago during Monday night. Heavy damage was done to shipping. Lightning struck in numerous places calling out fire companies, and lightning and the high winds put hundreds of telephone, police and fire alarm circuits out of commission. Several persons were more or less injured.

DOG JOINS WOLVES.

Pack Under His Leadership Commits Depredations Until Finally Rounded Up.

Butte, Mont., July 16.—Bisley, a large Airdale dog owned by W. H. Reber, of Butte, was killed while leading a pack of wolves near Red Oak Lodge. Three wolves were shot aet the same time. The following story can be verified in every detail and proves that London's "Call of the Wild" is not altogethr fiction.

Bisley was the special property of Edward, W. H. Reber's son, and was kept on the Reber ranch. "He was the best hunter I have ever seen," said the young man. I have bn out with him many times in a boat on Rosebud Lake. The ducks would no sooner drop in the water than Bisley was out of the boat and after them. Late last winter he disappeared. A few weeks prior to that he would go off into the woods, sometimes staying away whole days. Then he vanished altogether. I thought h had attacked a cougar and got the worst of it.'

John Dunn had been troubled with prowling wolves the last few months. He saw the pack several times and told of a strange looking light brown wolf that led the bunch. He believed that if he could get the leader the wolves would cease their daring attacks upon his stock.

At last Dunn and several cowboys started after the bunch. They hunted most of the day, setting snares. The pack was rounded up and four of the animals fell. The leader was the first one shot, as Mr. Dunn was particularly anxious to get him. When Mr Dunn reached the carcass, he picked up, instead of a wolf, an unusually large Airdale dog. It was Bisley, all right. A collar was still around his neck and the name of the owner on the brass tag.

SOLD POISON TO CHILDREN.

Forty Dealers in Adulterated Drinks Fined or Held for Court.

Philadelphia, July 15.—As a result of a far-reaching crusade against dealers in adulterated foods by agents of the State Dairy and Food Commission, 20 pushcart venders and keepers of sidewalk stands were fined or held in bail for court by Magistrate Cooney, yesterday afternoon. All were charged with selling ice cream and soft drinks sweetened with saccharine and colored with coal tar dyes. Ten of the defendants were fined, amounts ranging from $25 to $60. At least half of the others will be jailed, as those held to await trial were unable to secure bail. Special Agent Robert M. Simmers made the arrests and Charles L. Brown, counsel for the commission, prosecuted the cases.

The venders were the first given hearings out of a total of about 100 arrests made within the last few days on complaints from physicians all over the city who reported hundreds of cases of sickness among children from partaking of the poisoned wares.

By using the impure sweetenings, he said, the venders saved considerable money as one pound of saccharine will go as far as 550 pounds of sugar. The saccharine in many cases was found hidden on the persons of the venders or in their push-carts. Mr. Simmers also testified that the principal patrons of the venders are small children who buy the drinks for one an dtwo cents a glass and that hundreds of cases of digestive disorders have developed among them as a result.

MAY APPOINT VIRGINIAN.

Oscar Terry Crosby Considered For Governor of Philippines.

Washington, July 16.—The administration is giving serious consideration to choice of a governor general for the Philippines and two other places on the Philipine commission.

Many well known names have been urged upon the President for the governor-generalship, but that of Oscar Terry Crosby, of Warrenton, Va., is regarded as foremost in oral attention and as the one most likely to be sent to the Senate at an early date, according to present plans.

Mr. Crosby is president of several public utility corporations in Wilmington, Del., Chester, Pa., and Trenton, N. J., and has a home in Warrenton, Va., though he was born in Louisiana. He is an electrical engineer by profession, was graduated from West Point in 1882 and resigned from the army after several years service in the engineer corps.

Mr. Crosby's interest in world affairs, and particularly those of the Orient, which is believed to have been considered by the President as one of his qualifications, led him in 1900 to explore portions of Abyssinia and the Soudan, and in 1903 portions of Turkestan and Tibet.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Although Viola Fallis, the fourteen-year-old orphan girl whom he and his wife adopted, and whose accusations caused him to be convicted and sentenced to a term of from five to thirty years in the State penitentiary, has admitted that her charges were nothing but lies, Rev. George D. Huggins, for twenty-five years a minister in the little Quaker and Methodist settlement at Jacobstown, N. J., has surrendered himself to the sheriff and announced his readiness to be imprisoned. Under the laws of New Jersey the courts cannot receive the new evidence of his innocence. It must be presented to the Pardon Board, which cannot be done until he actually begins serving his sentence in prison. The girl says she was actuated in making the charges by the strict Puritanical life in which she was being reared by Huggins and his wife.

One of the great European powers through its diplomatic representative in Washington has called the attention of Secretary Bryan to the chaotic conditions in Mexico and the effect upon the welfare and safety of its citizens there with a polite inquiry as to what the United States proposes to do about it. Whether the inquiry was part of a concented movement on the part of European powers to bring the State Department to a declaration of its purpose toward Mexico did not develop. Reports from the City of Mexico, however, would appear to warrant that conclusion. Administration officials admitted that the situation in Mexico and diplomatic inquiries from Europe as to what the attitude of this country would be toward its neighbor on the south were engaging their deepest attention.

OFFICERS RAID STILL.

Fredericksburg, Va., July 16.—Captain Charles Gee, United States revenue officer, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff McKinney, of Lancaster county, raided the premises of Robert Rich, colored, near Kilmarnock, in Lancaster county, recently, and captured a quantity of whiskey, gin and beer. In the rear of the smokehouse they found a fifty-gallon copper still fully equipped for operation. It is said the still had been in operation for some time. The still was destroyed and Rich taken before Justice Chase who bonded him for his appearance at a later date.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

Praise This Remedy For Consumption

If the voluntarily written words of grateful people living in all parts of the country, praising Eckman's Alterative, a remedy for the treatment of coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles, are to be believed, this medicine is certainly doing a vast amount of good for such sufferers. We state none but facts, and give to you the names and words of some of those who declare it benefited them—in many cases coupled with the writers' statements that it restored them to health. This is a sample taken from many:—

St. Mary's Academy, O'Neill, Nebraska.

"Gentlemen:—About seven years ago I was attacked with the dread disease, Tuberculosis. I coughed unceasingly, could not sleep nor eat, even could not speak out loud and could do no work. I had three hemorrhages, raised blood most of the time and suffered of night sweats, fever and chills. A specialist of Columbus, Ohio, pronounced my case hopeless.

"Nearly five years ago I heard of your Alterative and procured some at once, with the result that I soon found myself restored to health. For the past four years I have been able to continue my teaching, and though I have always had heavy school work, I am also able to perform much manual labor. I consider your medicine, if faithfully taken, a most excellent remedy for Consumption. Mother Superior permits this testimonial.

(Signed) SISTER MARIE,
Sisters of St. Francis.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. RICH RECLUSE DYING.

He Shut Down Industy, Discharged Everybody and Let Decay Begin.

Spring Lake, Mich, July 16—Stricken with paralysis and unable to utter a word William H. Bell, pioneer lumberman, one of the wealthiest men in the village and known as an eccentric, lies at the point of death in his ramshackle hut on the shore of Spring Lake. He inherited a good property and added to it. Then he quarreled with a brother and shut down the mills and let them go to ruin.

He had no intimates and but few acquaintances. For the last thirty years he has lived the life of a hermit. He never ventured into society, although at the time of his quarrel he was one of the most popular and finest looking men in Spring Lake. He never ventured to the polls.

On warm days he would take his seat in one of the apple trees overlooking the lake and sit for hours viewing his decaying buildings.

ANNALS OF CRIME.

Attempted Suicide Only Charge in Which Married Men Lead in Number of Convictions.

New York, July 16.—That unmarried men commit more crimes than do married men, is indicated in the annual report of the chief clerk of the District Attorney's Office. The report shows that during the year ending July 1, there were 2,068 convictions of unmarried men in General Sessions Court and the Supreme Court, as compared with 789 convictions of married men. There were 100 convictions of unmarried women and 66 convictions of married women.

In the last nine years according to the record there have been 18,406 convictions of unmarried men, while 7,670 married men were convicted in that time. With the exception of one charge, attempted suicide, unmarried men have a great lead in the number of convictions.

The report shows that the District Attorney's office disposed of 4,827 cases during the year. n these 30,028 convictions were obtained. The number of convictions obtained on verdicts by jury was 640. On the 2,857 convictions of men, 940 were under 20 years of age, 1,278 were between 20 and 30 years, and from thirty the rate gradually decreases. Only five men past 70 were convicted. Out of the 26,079 convicted in the last nine years 11,052 were betwene 21 and 30 and 8,293 were between 15 and 20 years.

Records of the women prisoners show that two-thirds of those convicted were under 30 years. It also is apparent from the report that since 1904 there has been a gradual increase in the number of male criminals under the age of thirty.

Last year there were more convictions for murder in the first degree than during any year in the history of the county. Thirteen persons were convicted, while eight is the highest record ever made before in this country. There were ten convictions for murder in the second degree.

The average sentence imposed was five years and six months. The longest sentences were for burglary in the first degree.

Former Senator Stephen J. Stillwel, of New York, is now convict No 63545, having been received at Sing Sing prison yesterday to begin his sentence of from four to eight years

JEALOUS HUSBAND SLAYS.

Kills Lodger in Home of Wife From Whom He Was Separated.

Savannah, Ga., July 16.—"Get down on your knees and pray to your God, for I am going to kill you right now."

With these words J. L. George this afternoon shot and killed Henry J. McClelland with a revolver in the latter's own room. The bullet passed close to McClelland's heart, he dying within an hour.

The shooting occurred at the home of George's wife, from whom he was separated. McClelland recently had been rooming in Mrs. George's home. The police ascribe jealousy as the cause of the killing.

After the shooting, George surrendered to the nearest policeman, telling him what he had done.

Phonograph Death to Insects.

Pasadena, Cal., July 16. — Mrs. Jeanette de Long, of No. 342 Marengo avenue, a well known amateur entomologist, has tried phonograph on insects with the following tabulated results:

The California beetle cannot stand music. It kills him. Three playings of a slow piece, like "Home, Sweet Home," put him out of misery, but ragtime will kill him in a few bars.

The deadly tarantula falls into a stupor.

Butterflies are not affected.

The bumblebee flies into a nervous fit.

Wasps get wing paralysis and are unable to fly again, though otherwise unaffected.

Worms try to crawl nearer the phonograph as though pleased.
